

WHO ARE BROADCASTERS?

Local radio and television stations cover every corner of the U.S., bringing the best entertainment around, all for free. Not cable, not satellite and not subscription services... we're available for free, over the air.

17,294 total broadcast stations in the United States

38.5% of homes who rely on TV using an antenna are minority households

70 million Americans rely on broadcast television through an antenna

2.49 million jobs created by the broadcast industry

1.19 trillion generated annually by the local radio and television industry in economic activity

268 million people listen to radio each week

15,516 full power radio stations in the United States

1,778 full power television stations in the United States